This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (Commission) on the request of Maskina Communications, Inc. (f/k/a Transcom Communications, Inc.) (Maskina or the Company) to cancel the Company's Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold interexchange telecommunications services in South Carolina. Maskina was certificated by this Commission to operate as a reseller of interexchange telecommunications services in South Carolina pursuant to Order No. 2004-315, issued July 2, 2004, in the Company's former name of Transcom Communications, Inc. By Order No. 2006-647, issued November 2, 2006, the Commission approved a change of the Company's name to its present name of Maskina Communications, Inc.

By letter filed January 5, 2009, Maskina seeks to cancel the Company's certification to provide telecommunications services in South Carolina and to withdraw its tariff relative to the provision of these services. According to Maskina, the Company is exiting the United States telecommunications market. Further, Maskina advises that the Company presently has no customers in South Carolina; therefore, no customers will be affected by this cancellation.

As Maksina no longer wishes to provide telecommunications services for which the Company's Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity was granted, the Commission finds and concludes that Maskina's Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide telecommunications services should be cancelled.

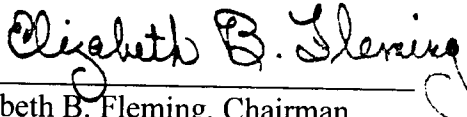

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold interexchange telecommunications services within the state of South Carolina authorized by Order No. 2004-315, dated July 2, 2004, issued to Maskina Communications, Inc. f/k/a Transcom Communications, Inc. is hereby cancelled, and the Company's associated tariff is withdrawn.

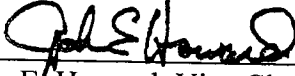

2. Maskina Communications, Inc., if applicable, remains responsible for any assessments due during any year that the Company has operated in South Carolina.

3. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION:

Elizabeth B. Fleming, Chairman
